

Students and their families already know that a college education is valuable. But, do they know how they'll pay for it? During the Making College Financial Planning Count presentation your school hosted, they started learning about how to build a plan to pay for that valuable asset.

Now you can help your students and their families to continue developing their family's college funding strategy by encouraging them to visit Making College Financial Planning Count online! This interactive overview of the college funding process includes information they learned during the presentation...and more!

They will also have access to the electronic College FundPath(™) Worksheet, which allows families to customize their college funding strategy. They can learn at their own pace, and they will also be able to save, update and print their personal plan any time they like.

Visit Making College Financial Planning Count today to see for yourself what an invaluable tool this is for your students and their families!

The resource is elearning.makingitcount.com with your students and their families by: