

Biology EOC Test Preparation

Helpful tips for helping your student prepare for success on the Biology EOC!

Subject Area	Overview	Testing Schedule	Resource Links
Biology	160 minute session, computer based, cumulative, 30% of overall grade in course	May	Amoeba Sisters Bozeman Science Crash Course Biology 1

Getting Ready for the EOC

1. Review, Review, Review! The more familiar a student is with the information covered on the exam, the better. There are countless resources for student revision on the internet!
  - Suggested Links
    - Amoeba Sisters
    - Bozeman Science
    - Crash Course
    - Biology 1
2. Get Familiar with the Testing Format: See Attached for Practice Questions!
3. Practice Reading! Reading comprehension is a crucial part of success on the Biology EOC. Students will need to be comfortable reading and analyzing long, complex questions throughout the test.
  - In order to prepare students should:
    - Practice Reading Science Text
    - Utilize Science Specific Reading Strategies: Helpful Link: Science Reading Strategies
4. Do not wait until the last minute to start studying!
  - The suggested study schedule begins in April and includes a 30 minute period of revision every night (Mon – Fri)