

Summer Reading Literary Devices Worksheet

Part 2:

Characterization- choose ONE character from the book and complete the characterization exercises below.

Character's physical description:

Character's style of speaking (you may use quotes that show "who they are" as well):

What others think of the character/the effect the character has on others:

The character's thoughts:

The character's actions:

Turn over →

Part 2:

Please write in complete sentences, using proper spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

List the theme/s of the book and provide an example/explanation for at least one of the themes:

What is the Point of View (POV)? How do you know?

What is/are the conflict/s? (Man vs. man, man vs. nature, man vs. society, man vs. machine, etc.)

What is the setting of the story? Give a brief description.

What are some symbols throughout the story? What are they symbols for?

Where there any flashbacks or was there foreshadowing? What were they?
