

Yellow Jacket Community,

It is hard to believe we've already reached the end of the first semester! This semester has been filled with great successes both in and out of the classroom and we look forward to a great final week focused on finishing strong! We have a number of activities this week including our winter band concert, guitar concert, and numerous athletic contests. We hope to see you on campus supporting our students. Please see below for important items about this final week and beyond:

- SAHS Activities Flyer - 12/18/23
- Thursday, December 21st is the final day of the first semester. School will dismiss at 2:55pm on this day. All classes on the 21st will be focused on retakes to provide students one final opportunity to improve their grades before the semester ends. The focus will be for students to improve grades that are "C" and below. We understand that all students will not have assessments to retake or make-up so we have devised a form for families to ease the check-out process. The form can be submitted to the front office or emailed to theresa.nelson@stjohns.k12.fl.us
 - December 21st Check-out Note
- We have after-school tutoring help available for students this week on Monday and Tuesday. There will be a robust after school tutoring/review program available for students for the entire 2nd semester starting January 16th.
