

Name _____

Book Title: The Story of the Malakand Field Force

Author: Winston Churchill

Book is available for free: <https://www.gutenberg.org/files/9404/9404-h/9404-h.htm>

Directions: Fill in the sections of this data sheet completely while reading the book.

|                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                               |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| General InformationDate of publication:Genre:                                                                         | Biographical Information about the AuthorWho is the author and what is their expertise or connection to the event? |
| Historical Context(s) of the NovelWhat was happening in the world when this book was written versus the era it describes? | PerspectivesWhose voices are prioritized in this narrative, and whose are missing?                                 |

Summary

Write a multiple paragraph summary of the book. (200-300 words)

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

---

Structure

How is the text structured? Does the writer use rhetorical devices like flashback, foreshadowing, or other devices?
Provide evidence to support your response.

|  |
|--|
|  |
|--|

Author's Point of View (Bias)

What is the author's stance on the historical event? Is the narrative objective, or does it advocate for a specific political or social viewpoint?

| Language/terms used to describe events | Evidence of Bias or Neutrality |
|----------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
|                                        |                                |

Geography and Chronology

Identify the physical locations and the specific time-period. How did the geography of the region influence the historical outcomes?

| Key Location(s) | Impact of Geography on the Event |
|-----------------|----------------------------------|
|                 |                                  |

Historical Figures and Stakeholders

Identify the most significant individuals and or groups in the book.

| Name | Role in the Event | Historical Significance | Motivating Factors |
|------|-------------------|-------------------------|--------------------|
|      |                   |                         |                    |
|      |                   |                         |                    |
|      |                   |                         |                    |
|      |                   |                         |                    |
|      |                   |                         |                    |
|      |                   |                         |                    |

Symbols

What are the defining moments or “turning points” in the book that changed the course of the history being discussed?

| Significant Event | Historical Significance/Impact |
|-------------------|--------------------------------|
|                   |                                |

---

Primary Quotes & Historiographical Significance

Identify important quotes from the author or from primary sources cited within the text that illustrate a major historical point. (Minimum of 3)

| Quote/Example (Chapter #) | Historical Significance/Impact |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------|
|                           |                                |
|                           |                                |
|                           |                                |
|                           |                                |

Historical Themes

Identify at least three(3) historical themes (e.g. Power, Revolution, Identity, Economics) and support them with evidence.

Theme 1:

|  |
|--|
|  |
|--|

Theme 2:

|  |
|--|
|  |
|--|

---

Theme 3:

Critical Review & Legacy

Write a brief review of the book in 200 - 300 words. Address how Churchill portrays social imperialism and the British interactions with local populations and its contribution to your understanding of the subject.

Attach additional pages to this document if necessary!